ARTHUR HUFF, Sec'y.

MORE or less acute political observers predict that no third party will be supported by the Hearst papers unless Mr. Hearst is its Presidential candidate, and that no third party will support itself if Mr. Hearst is its Presidential candidate.—Chicago Public.

DIAZ has suppressed another "insurrection" in his usual summary and bloody manner. He has also as summarily disposed of the presumptuous and outrageous traitor who attempted to compete with him for the Presidency of Mexico at the late "election." The rash would-be competitor was promptly enduegoned and given ample time to ponder his insolent ambition and to reflect on the beauties of Liberty as she is known in Mexico. The busy dailies of our country are filled day after day with nauseating laudations of the well-equipped founder of the Ananias Club, but have little or no space to devote to the outrages occurring in the Republic (!) bounding our domain on the south. Has the Business Interests' investment of $700,000,000 in the Diaz dominion anything to do with the press's complaisant silence?

THE St. Louis Times voices my belief in an editorial under the caption, "Hired Zealots." Here it is: "It should be borne in mind that the recent disturbance in Newark, O., was caused largely by the hired henchmen of the anti-saloon people. The detectives, including the strike-breaker who was lynched, were not of Newark. They had been obtained, in part at least, through advertisements inserted in newspapers published outside of Newark. It is easily to be believed that they were working for what there was in it." That they were prompted by enthusiasm or approval for the cause of the anti-saloon people is not to be credited. It strikes us that this development puts the work of the Anti-Saloon League, in some of its phases, at least, upon a plane which should be understood by the public. A great many people are persuaded to contribute funds to the work of the League. In so far as contributions are used to further the legitimate work of the League, they may be right and proper enough. But we believe that individuals having the welfare of the country at heart should have a care that their contributions do not go to the recompensing of soldiers of fortune who are ready to sell their services in the market, and whose zeal is not likely to be tempered by principle or righteousness."

We are having too much rain. I attended the Baptist church at Piedmont Sunday. Heard a fine sermon from Rev. Weber. His text was, "Put on the whole armour of God." He said in part that when a soldier went out to battle he would not leave off part of his accoutrements but would leave off nothing, and a soldier of Christ should leave off nothing, but be prepared to fight the battle of the Lord.

While stopping at my son-in-law's, Chas. Williams, Saturday night at Piedmont, we were treated with a serenade from a party of young men and girls. One song they sang was simply fine (Ouanita) the first time I have heard it since the war. Many thanks to them.

Well, now I am going to say something about politics. I met with Mr. Eaves on the train Sunday. He is receiver of the Greenville Mfg. Co., and was formerly professor of the Greenville high school. He said that Walter Hensley would sweep Wayne county. I told him I was glad to hear it for Mr. Hensley is no doubt the man. He also said that Dearing would carry Wayne county over Byrns, from the fact that Byrns bolted the ticket some years ago and voted for Williams instead of Berkley. Besides he says all the saloons are supporting Byrns and that was a bad sign.

Dr. Barnhouse, candidate for Collector, was here last week. He is well qualified for the position. One of his competitors, Mr. Black, also was here.

Report says Dick Ruble, also a candidate for collector, has pulled off.

Lesterville Items.

Plenty of rain these days and crops are looking fine; in fact, the oat crop is better than in many years, M. E. Goggin having a large field of oats, which will thresh 75 bushels to the acre.

Hartman & Son, of Black, Mo., have erected a warehouse near the hub mill office for the storing of their freight at Lesterville, while in transit to their store at Black. This will be a great convenience as heretofore they have been obliged to store with the local merchants which was very inconvenient.

Mr. Walter Wallace, of Bunker, is drilling wells at this place, having already completed wells for Jas. Irvin, Rev. J. January, Albert Johnson and White & Hummel Mfg. Co. He also has several more to drill, among these being one for W. I. Bays and one for the school house. An abundance of good water has been obtained at all of the above places where wells have been completed.

Quite an important real estate deal was consummated last week. "Uncle Bill" Rayfield, purchased from Henry Bonney the whole block opposite the post-office, on which are located four houses and a blacksmith shop. We understand "Uncle Bill" has donated a lot on the corner to the Bank of Lesterville and a new building will soon be erected on this site, which will be an ornament to our village.

The Bank of Lesterville has made a most creditable showing during the first year of its existence, having been able to declare a good dividend on the capital stock, after meeting all the necessary expenses attendant upon the installing of a new banking institution. The bank has also proven one of the greatest conveniences Lesterville has ever enjoyed. Under this head, too much praise cannot be given to the cashier, Mr. Clarence Shelton, whose geniality is doing much to make the bank a success.

The picnic given by the M. W. A. on the 4th passed off very pleasantly, with no drunkenness or fighting to mar the occasion, and everyone expressed himself as having an enjoyable time. The lodge cleared in the neighborhood of $100.

One of the most pleasant features of the 4th of July picnic was the ball game between Lesterville and their old time opponents, the Centerville team. The game was well played from an amateur standpoint and the result when viewed through Lesterville glasses, was very satisfactory as our boys were the victors by a score of 11 to 10—a small but satisfactory margin. The Lesterville team is very efficiently managed by Arthur Sizemore.
